

14.050 Technical standards.

1. The chairman shall publish technical standards for approval of new gaming devices, on-line slot metering systems, and cashless wagering systems.

2. The chairman shall:

(a) Publish notice of the proposed action in such newspapers as the commission shall prescribe;

(b) Mail a copy of the proposed technical standards or revisions and a copy of this section of Regulation 14 to every nonrestricted licensee, licensed manufacturer and every person who has filed a request with the commission; and

(c) Provide a copy of the proposed technical standards or revisions to the commission.

3. The chairman shall consider all written statements, arguments, or contentions submitted by interested parties within 30 days of service of the notice provided for in subsection 2.

4. Not later than 45 days after service of written notice that the chairman has proposed the technical standards, any nonrestricted licensee or licensed manufacturer may object to the technical standards or revisions by filing a written objection with the commission.

5. The commission shall consider any objections filed to the technical standards or revisions proposed by the chairman. If the commission does not concur with any of the technical standards, the chairman shall revise the technical standards to reflect the order of the commission.

6. The chairman shall send written notice of the effective date of the standards to all nonrestricted licensees, licensed manufacturers and every person who has filed a request with the commission.

7. Nonrestricted licensees or licensed manufacturers may propose the adoption, revision, or deletion of technical standards by submitting a written request to the chairman who will consider the request at his discretion. If the chairman does not propose the technical standard, the nonrestricted licensee or licensed manufacturers may file a request with the commission to adopt, revise, or delete a technical standard. The commission may consider the request at its discretion.
